

William T. "Murph" Marron

June 5, 2022

Age 95, of Monroeville, passed away on Sunday, June 5, 2022. He was preceded in death by his wife of 67 years, Agnes O. Marron; his parents, Marie and William Marron; and his sister, Dorothy Ela. He is survived by his cousin, Nancy Mitchell; brother in-law, William O'Neill (Gretchen); and was uncle to Thomas O. Keane, Patsy O'Neill, Linda O'Neill, Kelly Kasznel, Kristen O'Neal, and Erin Musciano. He was a WWII veteran having served in the U.S. Navy. Bill enjoyed sailing on Lake Arthur and snow skiing with his wife in Utah and Vermont. He loved the outdoors flying his plane (that he made) with a remote control. He enjoyed making bird houses for his Beatty Pointe Friends. The trains, ships, and planes he made were perfect in every way, as he was a perfectionist. Friends will be received Wednesday, June 8, 2022, from 9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. at the GENE H. CORL FUNERAL CHAPEL INC. AND CREMATION SERVICES OF MONROEVILLE, 4335 Northern Pike (412-372-2100). Mass of Christian Burial following at 11 a.m. at Christ the Divine Shepherd Parish, 245 Azalea Drive, Monroeville. Interment will be private. Condolences can be made at www.corlfuneralchapel.com.

“ Bill will always be remembered by many of us here at Beatty Pointe Village. It was great to see the art work that he did. He was certainly talented. It was a pleasure to know him, and my sympathy to the family. May God be with you and comfort you at this time.

“ Beth and I lift our prayers for Murph's family during this tender time of loss. He was a true gentleman and always a delight to engage in conversation. He and Aggie were very special people and will be missed by many, including me!
